BACKGROUND
Wollongong City Council works with private, public and non-profit sectors to provide a range of services to the community. Accordingly, organisations, service providers, small businesses and individuals can expect high standards of ethical behaviour from Councillors and members of staff. Underpinning these expectations are our organisational values. They drive our behaviour and reflect how we conduct ourselves in our business. The four values are:

- Maintain integrity and earn trust
- Treat customers as we want to be treated
- Use the community’s money wisely
- Bring out the best in each other

OBJECTIVE
This Code of Business Ethics provides guidance regarding the standards of ethical behaviour that organisations, service providers, small businesses and individuals can expect from Councillors and members of staff and that are expected of them, in their dealings with Council.

POLICY STATEMENT
Our values guide our actions in conducting business in a socially responsible and ethical manner. As an organisation and as individuals, we respect, apply and comply with the law, support human rights and equal opportunity, protect the environment, achieve operational excellence and work for the benefit of our communities. Council officials will at all times act with honesty and integrity in an open and transparent manner, performing their roles efficiently, effectively and fairly, thereby attracting the highest level of confidence from our community.
STATEMENT OF PROCEDURES

COUNCIL’S CODE OF CONDUCT

The Wollongong City Council Code of Conduct sets the requirements of conduct for Council officials in carrying out their functions. The Code of Conduct has been developed to assist Council officials to:

- Understand the standards of conduct that are expected of them;
- Enable them to fulfil their statutory duty to act honestly and exercise a reasonable degree of care and diligence (Section 439 – Local Government Act 1993); and,
- Act in a way that enhances public confidence in the integrity of Local Government.

OUR KEY BUSINESS PRINCIPLES

The Wollongong City Council Code of Conduct is based on a number of key principles and sets out standards of conduct that meet these principles and statutory provisions applicable to local government activities. The key principles that the Code of Conduct is based on are:

Integrity

We must not place ourselves under any financial or other obligation to any individual or organisation that might reasonably be thought to influence us in the performance of our duties.

Leadership

We have a duty to promote and support the key principles by leadership and example and to maintain and strengthen the public’s trust and confidence in the integrity of the Council. This means promoting public duty to others in the Council and outside, by our own ethical behaviour.

Selflessness

We have a duty to make decisions in the public interest and not act in order to gain financial or other benefits for ourselves, our family, friends or business interests. This means making decisions because they benefit the public, not because they benefit the decision maker or someone associated with the decision maker.

Impartiality

We should make decisions on merit and in accordance with our statutory obligations when carrying out public business. This includes the making of appointments, awarding of contracts or recommending individuals for rewards or benefits. This means fairness to all, impartial assessment, merit selection in recruitment and in purchase and sale of Council’s resources, considering only relevant matters.

Accountability

We are accountable to the public for our decisions and actions and should consider issues on their merits, taking into account the views of others. This means recording reasons for decisions, submitting to scrutiny, keeping proper records, establishing audit trails and conducting audits.

Openness

We have a duty to be as open as possible about our decisions and actions, giving reasons for decisions and restricting information only when the wider public interest clearly demands. This means recording, giving and revealing reasons for decisions, revealing other avenues available to the client or business, when authorised, offering all information, communicating clearly.

Honesty

We have a duty to act honestly. We must declare any private interests relating to our public duties and take steps to resolve any conflicts arising in such a way that protects the public interest. This means obeying the law, following the letter and spirit of policies and procedures, observing the Code of Conduct, fully disclosing actual or potential conflict of interests and exercising any delegated authority strictly for the purpose for which the authority was delegated.
Respect
We must treat others with respect at all times. This means not using derogatory terms towards others, observing the rights of other people, treating people with courtesy and recognising the different roles others play in Local Government decision making.

In making our business decisions we strive to obtain the best value for money. Depending on the circumstances, our decision making takes into account many things including upfront costs, ongoing costs, suitability, quality, reliability, availability, experience, reputation, safety, legal compliance and environmental sustainability. While we strive to obtain the best price for goods and services we do not necessarily buy at the cheapest price nor sell at the highest price. Council is required to balance all relevant factors including initial cost, whole-of-life costs, quality, reliability and timeliness in determining true value for money.

Although Council business dealings must be transparent and open to public scrutiny, there will be times when information on Council’s relationships with private sector suppliers of goods and services cannot be made publicly available, however we will always act fairly in our decision making. That means we are objective, reasonable and even-handed. It does not mean that we can satisfy everyone all of the time. We will publicly support our decisions unless we have to maintain confidentiality or protect privacy.

WHAT YOU CAN EXPECT FROM US
Council will ensure that all its policies, procedures and practices related to tendering, contracting and the purchase of goods or services are consistent with best practice and the highest standards of ethical conduct. All Council procurement activities are based upon the following core business principles -

• Have not had any corrupt findings or been identified as a person of interest by ICAC.

This is a self-declaratory mechanism. The responsibility for such declaration at all times lies with the provider.

GUIDANCE NOTES

Gifts and Benefits

In general, Council expects its staff to decline gifts, benefits, travel or hospitality offered by parties with whom Council conducts business. You should refrain from offering any such ‘incentives’ to Council staff as all offers will be formally reported to Council by its officers.
Council only permits its staff to accept gifts if -

- Gifts are of token or nominal value;
- Refusal of a gift is likely to be perceived as rude or offensive to the party who is offering the gift; and,
- The offer is not targeted at an individual officer.

If a gift is accepted, Council requires the staff member to record the gift in a publicly accessible Gifts and Benefits Register.

Conflicts of Interest

All Council staff are required to disclose any conflicts of interest. Council extends this requirement to all our business partners, contractors and suppliers. Should a conflict of interest arise or be recognised by you in your dealing with Council you must notify and declare this conflict of interest to Council in writing.

A conflict of interest occurs when a public official is in a position to be influenced, or appear to be influenced, by your private interests when doing their job. A conflict of interest can involve avoiding personal disadvantage as well as gaining personal advantage. A private interest may include social and professional activities and interests with individuals or groups, including family and friends, as well as financial interests. There are different types of conflict of interest:

- Actual conflict of interest: A public official is in a position to be influenced by their private interest when doing their job.
- Perceived conflict of interest: A public official is in a position to appear to be influenced by their private interests when doing their job.
- Potential conflict of interest: A public official is in a position where they may be influenced in the future by their private interests when doing their job.
- A pecuniary interest involves a situation where there is the potential to gain or lose financially from your public position, for example from owning property, having unpaid debts to others, or receiving hospitality or travel.
- A non-pecuniary interest does not have a financial component. It can involve personal or family relationships or involvement in sporting, social or cultural activities that could influence your judgement or decisions, even though there is no financial benefit to you.

Confidentiality

All Council information should be treated as confidential unless otherwise advised to you by Council.

Communication between Parties

All communication should be clear, direct and accountable (written confirmation) in order to minimise the risk of perception of inappropriate influence being brought to bear on the business relationship.
