

I. Hill 60 Park

Take in the spectacular views of Port Kembla Beach from Hill 60 Park. A popular take off area for hang gliders and para gliders, Hill 60 Park has BBQ facilities as well as picnic shelters, seats and tables positioned to enjoy the scenic views.

J. Kanahooka Point & Koonawarra Bay

Featuring a cycle way that borders around Lake Illawarra, Kanahooka Point is the place to enjoy a variety of activities. A ramp located at the northern end of the park is a great place to launch boats for a day of water activities. The park is surrounded by landscaped gardens and large grassy areas.

K. Windang Foreshore Park

For those who prefer a spot of fishing, Windang Foreshore Park is the ideal location. Situated next to Lake Illawarra, Windang Beach and Windang Tourist Park, this area is the perfect spot to sit back and relax by the water. This park features a playground, with picnic shelters and ample shade trees.

Bookings and Enquiries

Wollongong's Foreshore Parks offer a variety of recreational facilities to ensure an enjoyable visit to the Illawarra.

Picnic shelters and huts cannot be booked and are frequently used on the weekends so get in early to secure a spot. Park bookings for large functions are required and can be made by contacting the Recreation and Natural Resources Division of Wollongong City Council.

Whether it be a picnic with the family or a lazy afternoon in the sun, Wollongong's foreshore parks are the ideal place for any occasion.

Wollongong Foreshore Parks

Stretching along 60km of beautiful coastline, Wollongong's Foreshore Parks offer some of the best recreational areas along the coast. Some of the park features include BBQ and picnic areas, regional playground facilities, large grassy open space areas and spectacular coastal views. These parks are located adjacent to the city's patrolled beaches (October – April) and the splendour of Lake Illawarra.

A. Bald Hill Headland Reserve & B. Stanwell Park Recreation Area

Just 30 mins south of Sydney, Bald Hill Headland reserve offers some of the most spectacular views across Wollongong. Bald Hill is recognised world wide for the birth of flight and for hang gliding. Just a short drive down the hill is Stanwell Park Recreation area. This area offers a regional playground facility and kiosk and is within walking distance of Stanwell Park beach. This area is a great place to relax and watch the hang gliders sail down from Bald Hill.

C. Austinmer Beach Park, D. Thirroul Beach Reserve & E. Bulli Beach Reserve

Overlooking some of Australia's finest beaches, these parks are the perfect place for a day out by the sea. Featuring picnic shelters and modern playground equipment, these parks adjoin sea pools and pristine patrolled beaches. Enjoy a bite to eat at the local cafés, adjacent to the beach reserves.

F. Towradgi Park Reserve

Towradgi Park reserve offers a range of recreational activities. The cycle way borders the modern playground facility and joins Towradgi and Corrimal Beaches. Shelter sheds and BBQ facilities are located in the eastern area of the park with a short walk to an ocean pool. Nearby tennis courts, soccer fields and bowling club ensure that Towradgi Park has something for everyone.

Parks

G. Stuart Park

One of the largest outdoor recreation areas in the city, Stuart Park is central to the Wollongong CBD, lagoon and North Wollongong Beach. The park features a large accessible playground and expansive grassed surrounds. Stuart Park has a number of picnic shelters and BBQ facilities that are popular on weekends. The scenic cycleway runs through the park and around Wollongong harbour. Vehicle parking is limited on most weekends so arrive early.

H. City Beach Foreshore & Lang Park

Relax and enjoy a picnic at Belmore Basin while you watch the boats arrive into Wollongong Harbour. With grassy banks and plenty of shade trees, City Beach Foreshore is the ideal place for a day out. Enjoy the view of the harbour or walk around the picturesque lighthouse at Flagstaff Hill. The City Beach cycle way leads down to Lang Park where playground facilities and undercover picnic huts are located. Lang Park has a large reserve that is ideal for playing outdoor games. The Wollongong Entertainment Centre and WIN Stadium are a short distance from the park.
