

Lesbian Feminist...Celebration of a Life

- Being different doesn't have to be problematic.

- I chose difference and once I embraced who I was wholly, my life just got better and better.

- I was involved in all sorts of adventures, lots of laughter; lots of creating changes in society that are still rippling even now.

- I was there at the beginnings of the women's movement in Sydney, the Gay and Lesbian Mardi Gras, the first women's peace camp in Pine Gap...and much much more. It was fun...it still is!
 - Difference is good...it's better than denial... there are many people in this world of difference... and it's fun finding out who and where they are!
