Going to Thirroul Library

Before I go to the library

I'm going to Thirroul Library.

If I am nervous about going, I can talk to someone and ask questions first. I can phone Thirroul Library on (02) 4227 8191.

About the library

There are people who work at the library who I can talk to.

The library is usually a quiet place where people talk quietly, relax and read books.

Sometimes it might be loud. If it gets too noisy, I can ask the library staff for help.

How I become a member of the library

When I get to the library I will see a desk.

I will talk to someone who works there to become a library member.

I will tell them my name, address, date of birth, telephone number, and email address.

I will need to bring one form of identification with my name and address, such as a driver's licence or concession card.

I'll answer some questions and learn about borrowing. I will receive a library card, and this makes me a library member.

When I visit the library

In the library there will be shelves of books, CDs, DVDs, and magazines.

I can sit in a chair to read a book.

I can borrow a book, CD, DVD, or magazine and take it home with me for four weeks.

If I want to borrow a book, CD, DVD, or magazine I will talk to a library staff member.

The staff will show me how to borrow the book, CD, DVD, or magazine and tell me when I need to bring it back to the library.

The library will also have some computers.

The computers are free to use with my library card.

One of the computers has a Vision Australia keyboard for people with low vision.

The library has some sensory tools I can borrow when I am in the library. I can ask a library staff member to borrow sensory tools.

I can use the bathroom just outside the library in the community centre.

When I have finished, I will leave the library through the main door.

I'll come back to my library to return the things I borrowed and find new things to take home!
I can use the return chute outside or inside my library to return what I borrowed.

We look forward to seeing you at Thirroul Library again soon!
