

Share the Path

It's there for all to share

Shared pedestrian and bicycle paths in our community are there for all of us to enjoy.

By being courteous to others and following a few simple rules we can make shared use paths a safe environment for all.

Share the Path

It's there for all to share

Keep to the left except when overtaking slower users.
Look before you cross the path.

Use your bell to warn when approaching.

Courtesy and respect for all.
Cyclists give way to pedestrians.
Travel at a safe speed & allow a metre when passing.

Move off when stopped.
Don't block the path of other users.

Supervise and watch out for children.
Children can be unpredictable in their movements.

Protect yourself and be aware.
Always wear a helmet, it's the law.

Keep dogs under control, on your left and away from other path users.
