

Cringila Hills Playground Design

mosq

mosq bikeriding

Cringila Children's House – Pre-schoolers tell us how they like to play

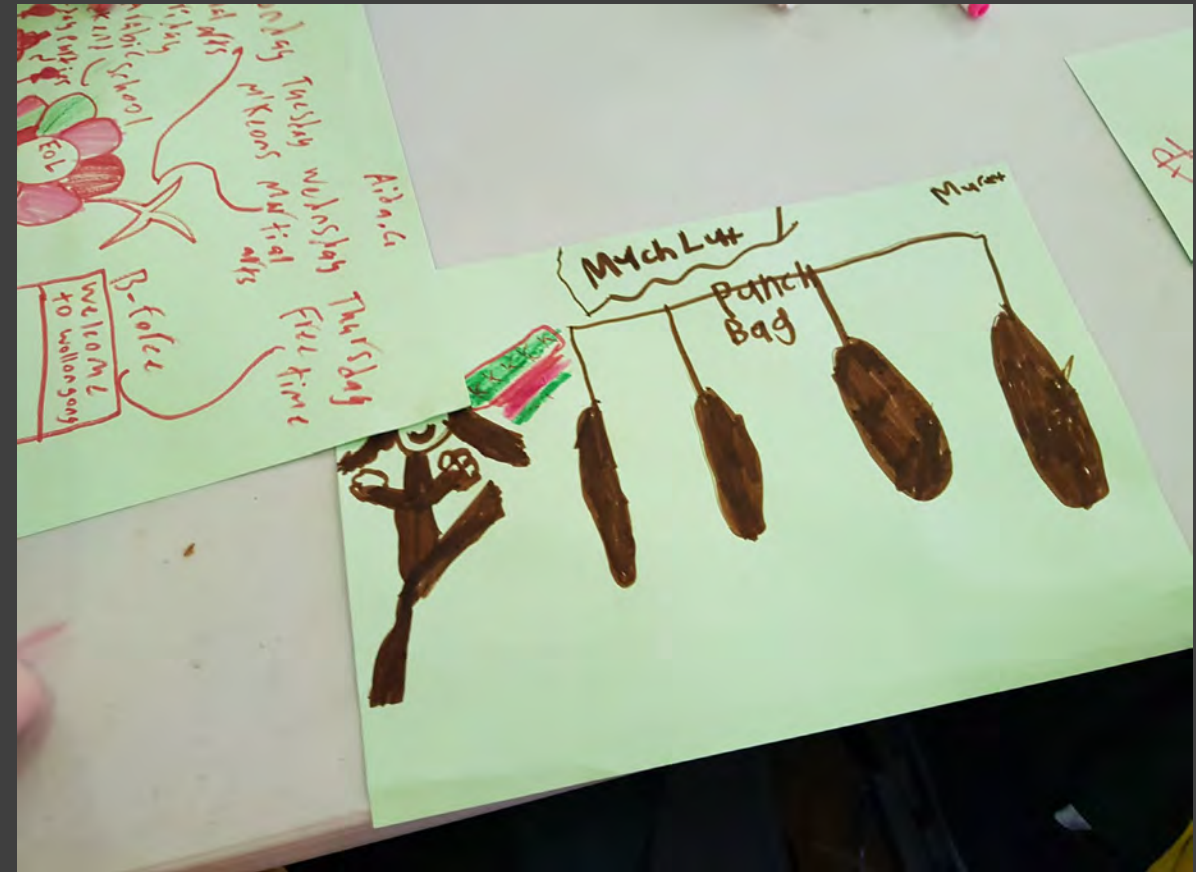

The Children from Southern Suburbs Mobile Pre-School tell us how they like to play and put dots on their favorite play actions and equipment.

Children from Cringila Public School share the work they have done on designs for their Nature Playground at the school

Cringila Public School share how they play in their spare time and ideas for the playground

Cringila Public School share ideas for the Cringila Hills precinct, mountain bike trails and playground

Warrawong Public School vote for their favourite play actions and nature play items, and share ideas for the Precinct, mountain bike trails and playground

Cringila Hills Playground Art Work

Cringila Public School - Drawing my buddy's portrait, including their favorite thing to do outside school

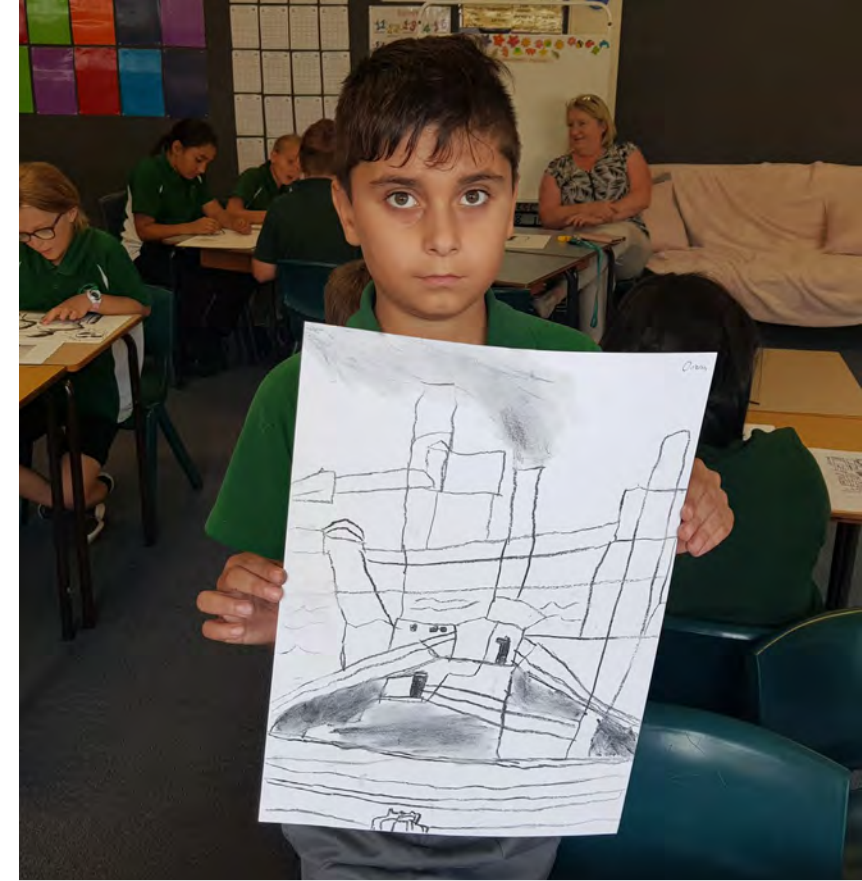

Transferring their drawings onto the clay tiles

The creative process with the children: Port Kembla Steel Works ceramic tile designs, Warrawong Public School

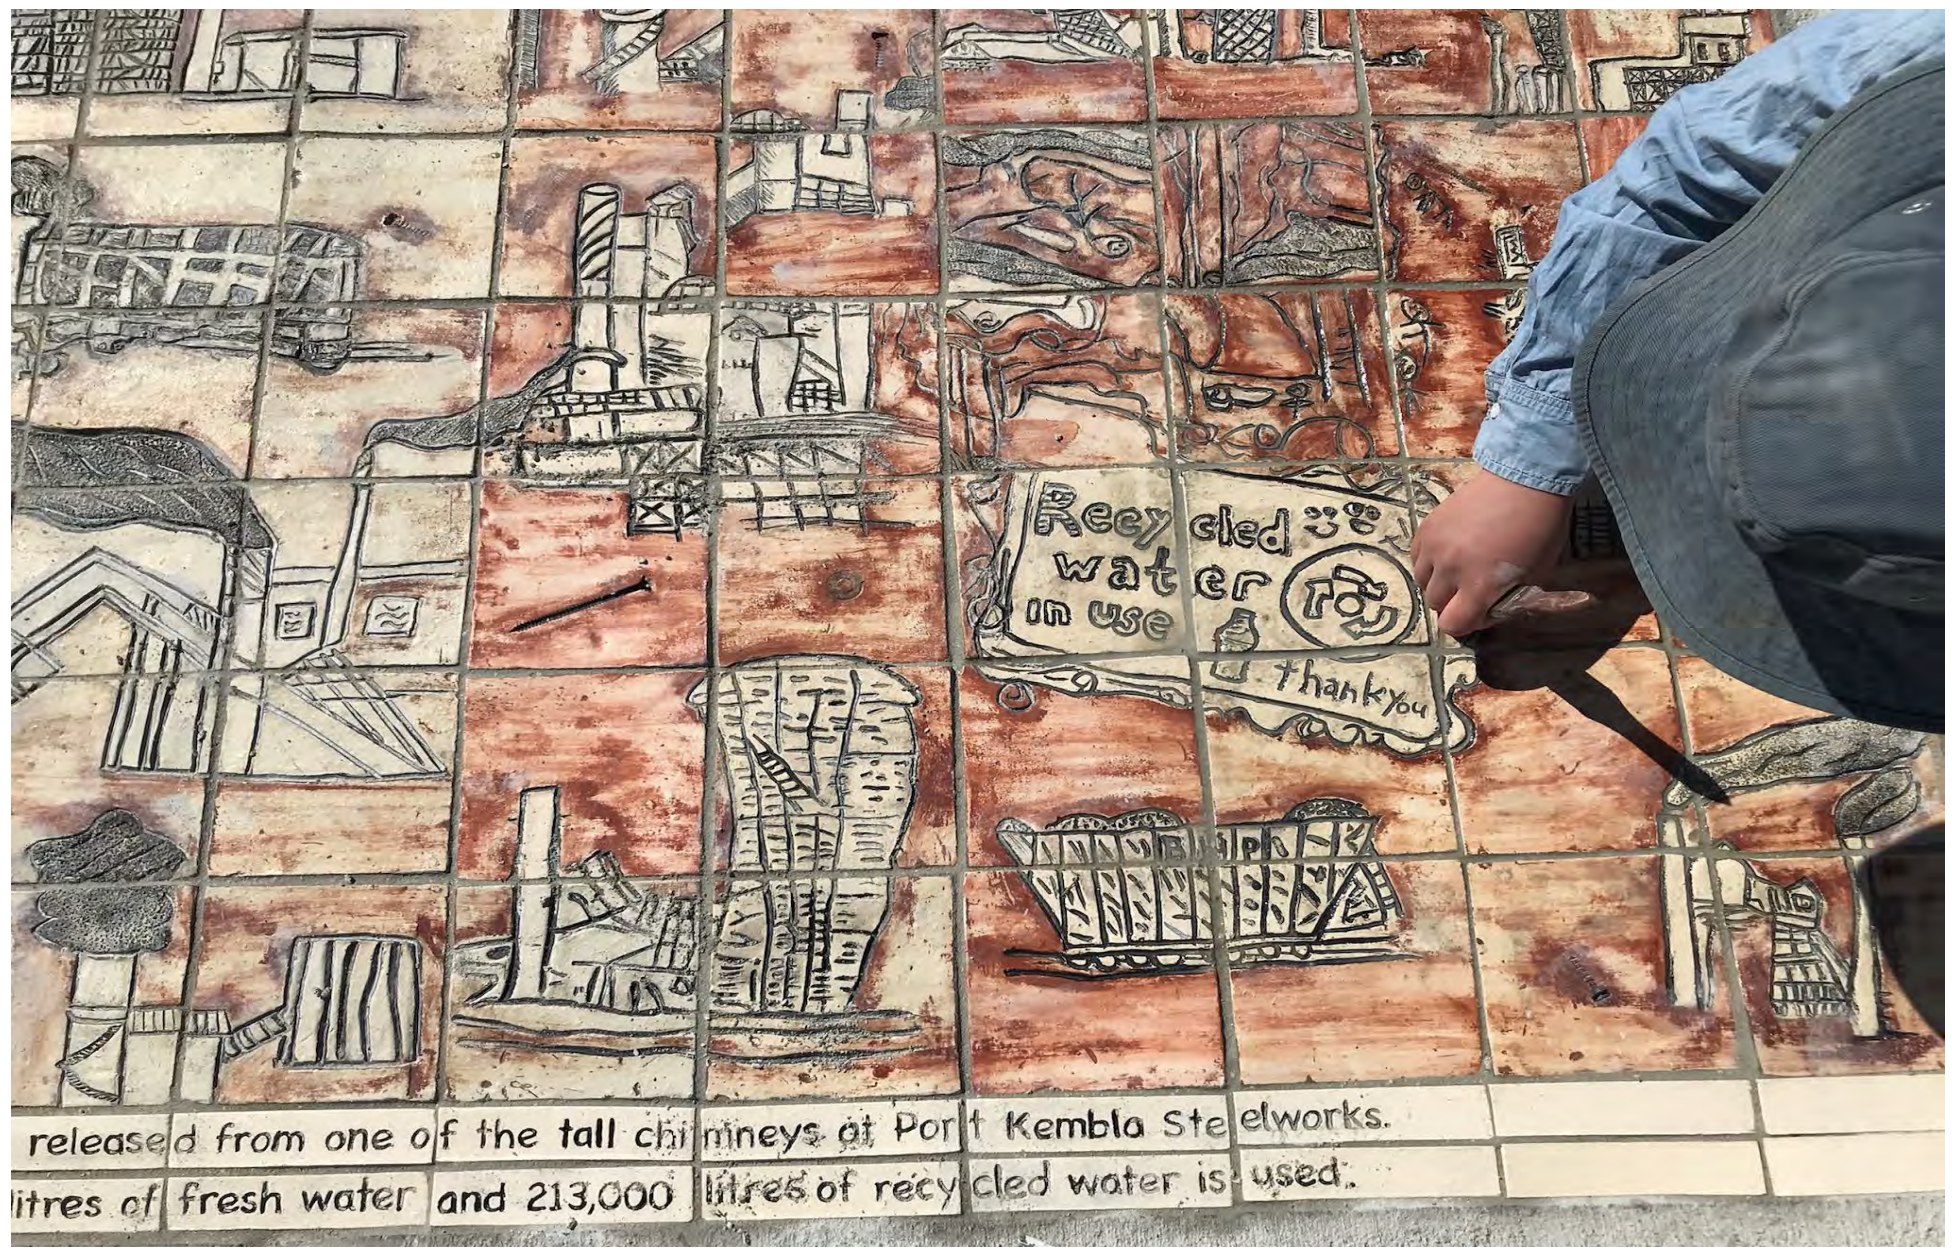

Children say, “We can’t draw, we are not an artist.”
With encouragement and drawing tips, we get amazing results and proud children.

Transferring their drawings onto the clay tiles

Tiles fired and installed at entrance 2

Coomaditchie United Aboriginal Corporation: Aunties and young people designing the ceramic Coolamons with the animals from the Dreaming story

Two of the six clay Coolamons installed in playground. Children can go searching for the six animals in the Dreaming story.

Cringila Children's House listen to the story of Gudgad the Greedy Frog and then help make the ceramic tadpoles and frog eggs.

Cringila Public School:
Making our tadpoles and frogs' eggs.

Warrawong Public School making tadpoles and frogs' eggs

Tadpoles and frogs' eggs (Gudgad's babies) installed at main entrance

Acknowledging those who participated

Dreaming interactive story book.

-Story in print + Braille.

-QR code to translate book into different languages on your phone.

Where is Gudgad?

᠘ᠠᠭᠠᠳᠠ ᠭᠤᠳᠠᠭᠠ ᠨᠢ ᠶ᠋ᠢᠨ ᠠᠨᠠᠭᠤᠯᠤᠰᠤ ᠨᠠᠭᠤᠰᠤᠨᠠᠭᠤᠯᠤᠰᠤ ᠨᠠᠭᠤᠰᠤᠨᠠᠭᠤᠯᠤᠰᠤ

Gudgad enjoyed being head of the frog clan but he was not satisfied. He sat beside the waterhole and dreamed of becoming leader of all the D'harawal. As he stared at the water rippling in the waterhole, he knew what to do.

ᠭᠤᠳᠠᠭᠠ ᠭᠤᠳᠠᠭᠠ ᠨᠢ ᠶ᠋ᠢᠨ ᠠᠨᠠᠭᠤᠯᠤᠰᠤ ᠨᠠᠭᠤᠰᠤᠨᠠᠭᠤᠯᠤᠰᠤ ᠨᠠᠭᠤᠰᠤᠨᠠᠭᠤᠯᠤᠰᠤ ᠨᠠᠭᠤᠰᠤᠨᠠᠭᠤᠯᠤᠰᠤ

Can you see where Gudgad's children are stranded?

Can you see where Gudgad's children are stranded?

He hopped down off his log and swallowed all the water in the water hole, stranding his children in a small puddle of water.

He hopped down off his log and swallowed all the water in the water hole, stranding his children in a small puddle of water.

Can you find Wuri in the playground?

Wuri the Sun enjoyed the laughing so much that she asked Gugara to awaken her every morning. Gugara was pleased and said he would also laugh in the evening so Wuri would have happy dreams.

Wuri the Sun enjoyed the laughing so much that she asked Gugara to awaken her every morning. Gugara was pleased and said he would also laugh in the evening so Wuri would have happy dreams.

Where is Wiritjiribin in the playground?

Gudgad called the clans together and told them he would return their water if he was leader of all the D'harawal.

Wiritjiribin, The Rememberer of the Lyrebird clan, wisely spoke: "It is against the law for one man to make all the decisions that affect our lives and the lives of our children," she said.

Gudgad called the clans together and told them he would return their water if he was leader of all the D'harawal.

Book installed in playground

The people of all the clans joined him and they all laughed together at Gudgad the greedy frog. For three days and three nights they laughed and laughed and laughed. Finally, Gudgad began to giggle. Then he began to chuckle. Then he began to laugh. His belly began to wobble so much that he vomited up all the water he had stolen from the creeks and waterholes.

THE PEOPLE OF ALL THE CLANS JOINED HIM AND THEY ALL LAUGHED TOGETHER AT GUDGAD THE GREEDY FROG. FOR THREE DAYS AND THREE NIGHTS THEY LAUGHED AND LAUGHED AND LAUGHED. FINALLY, GUDGAD BEGAN TO GIGGLE. THEN HE BEGAN TO CHUCKLE. THEN HE BEGAN TO LAUGH. HIS BELLY BEGAN TO WOBBLE SO MUCH THAT HE VOMITED UP ALL THE WATER HE HAD STOLEN FROM THE CREEKS AND WATERHOLES.

Gudgad slipped into the pond in shame, with only his nostrils above the water surface. To this day he sits in the water, grumbling over his bad luck.

GUDGAD SLIPPED INTO THE POND IN SHAME, WITH ONLY HIS NOSTRILS ABOVE THE WATER SURFACE. TO THIS DAY HE SITS IN THE WATER, GRUMBLING OVER HIS BAD LUCK.

Gudgad The Greedy Frog clay model by Aunty Lorraine

Stage 2: Carving industrial polystyrene to make the model

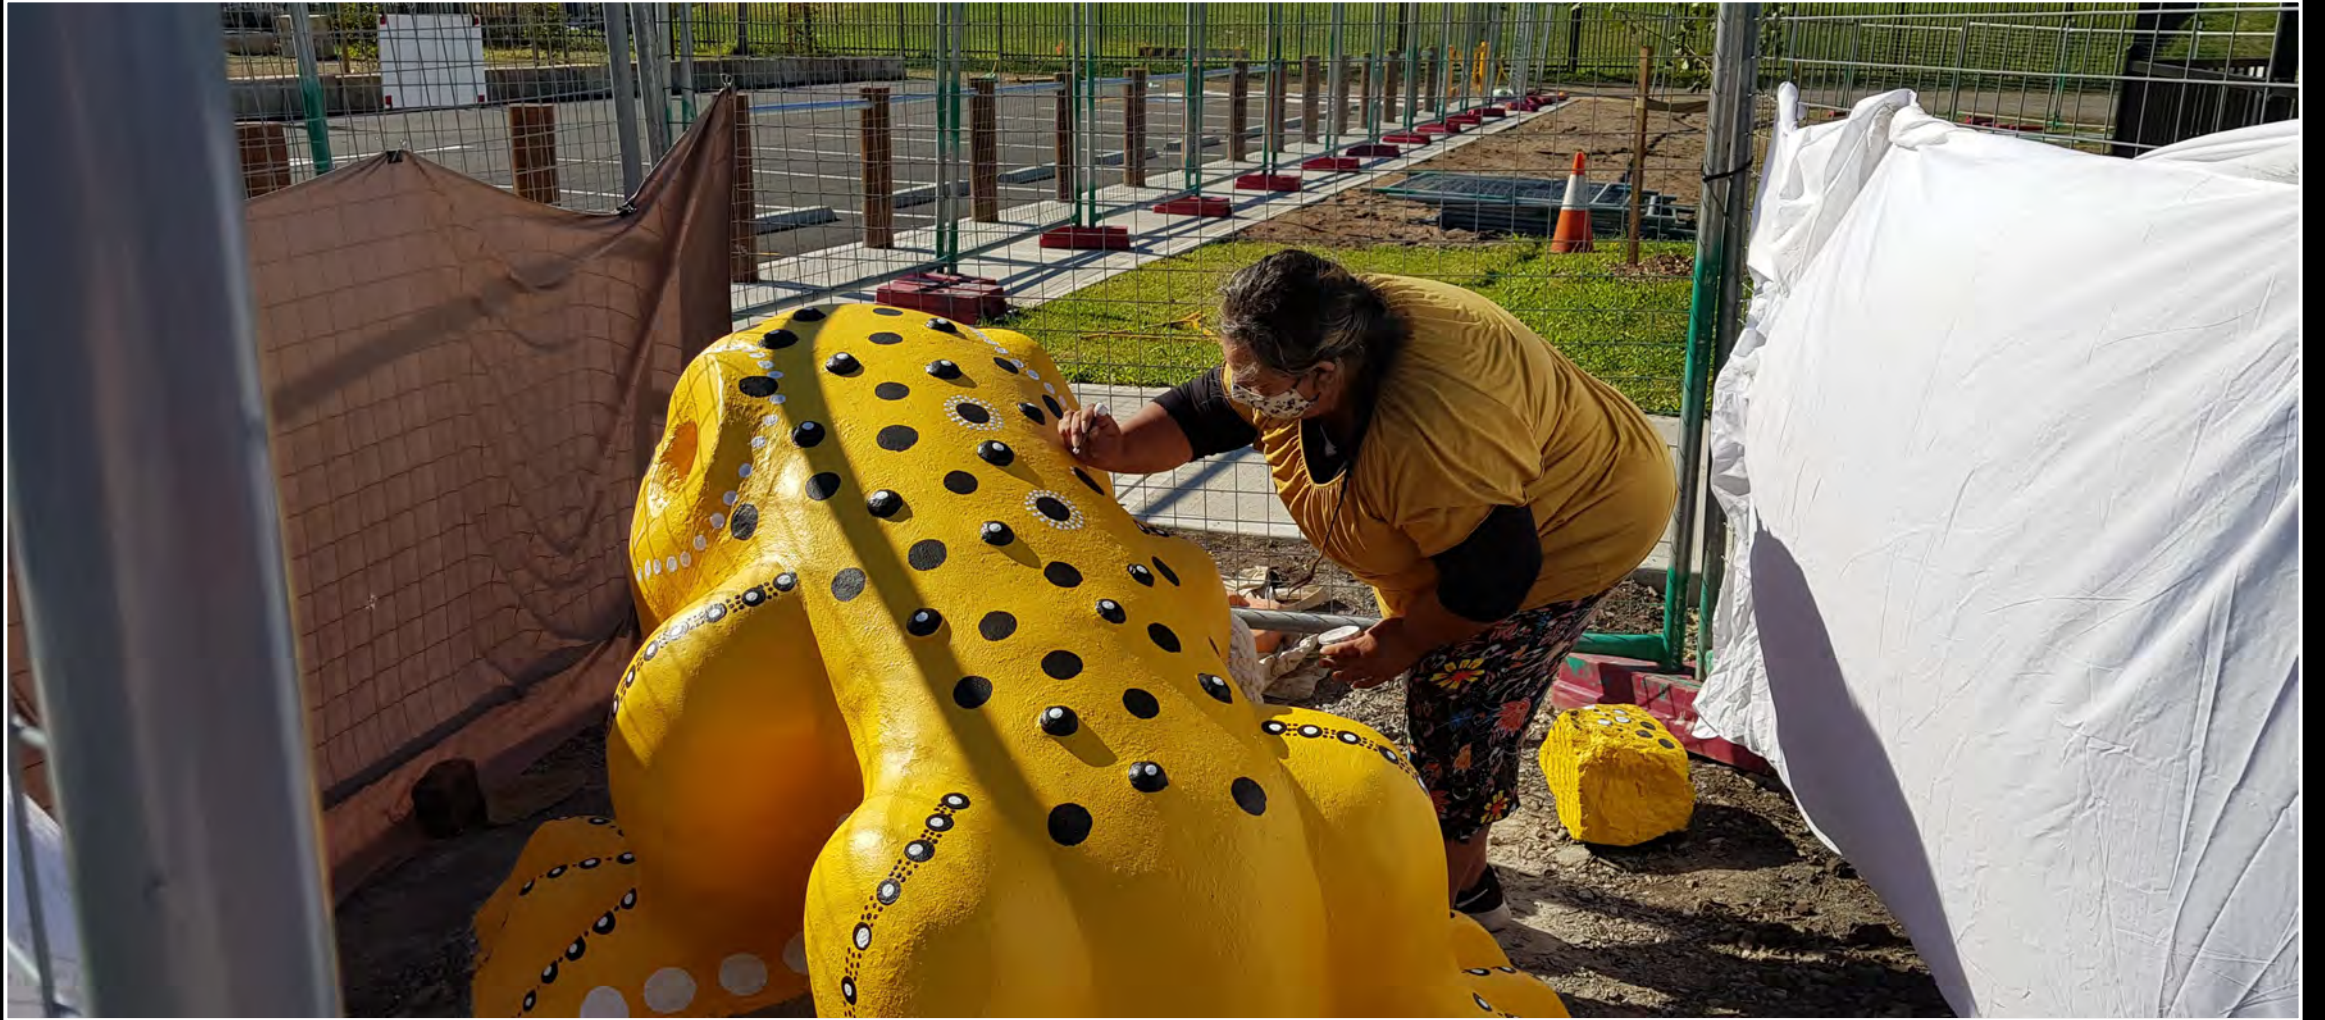

Installation: Covered in mesh and concrete.
Many people were involved in this process.

Michael and Luke from Council's printing team lovingly put on primer and base coats.

Aunty Ali working on the final stage of design

Our paint crew
put the glossy
anti-graffiti coating on

The landscape crew plant out the base.

The Braille map of the playground, and you can learn your name in Braille!

We can't wait to celebrate together with the children, cut the ribbon with the Lord Mayor and EAT CAKE!